4. The Eternal Inheritance to Come

The City who's builder and maker is God far exceeds New York City, Tokyo, London or any city on this planet today. In this world we are saving up for a nice retirement home so we can live out the later years of our short life here. But there is a home bought and paid for, far exceeding your wildest dreams concerning retirement. It's all fact, not science fiction! The information in this Study Guide will thrill your soul and give you hope for the future.

1. Who is the architect and builder of this space city?

"Wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city." (Hebrews 11:16)

Answer: The Bible declares that God is building a great city for His people. And this city is as real and literal as any you have ever known.

2. Where is this amazing city that God is preparing?

"And I John saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven." (Revelation 21:2)

"O Lord my God ... hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place." (1 Kings 8:28-30)

Answer: This great city that is being constructed is, at this moment, in far outer space in God's dwelling place, which is called heaven.

3. How do the Scriptures describe this amazing space city?

Answer:

(A) SIZE

"And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs." (Revelation 21:16)

The city is perfectly square. Its perimeter is 12,000 furlongs, or 1,500 miles (a furlong is 1/8 mile). It is 375 miles long on each side.

(B) NAME

The city is called "new Jerusalem" in Revelation 21:2.

(C) WALLS

"And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits. ... And the building of the wall of it was of jasper." (Revelation 21:17, 18)

A wall 144 cubits, or 216 feet high (a cubit is 18 inches), surrounds the city. The wall is made of solid jasper, with radiance and beauty beyond description. Think of it! Nearly 20 stories high and solid jasper!

(D) GATES

"And had twelve gates ... On the east three gates on the north three gates on the south three gates and on the west three gates...And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl."

(Revelation 21:12, 13, 21)

The city has 12 gates- three on each side - each one made of a single pearl.

(E) FOUNDATIONS

"The wall of the city had twelve foundations ... garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper the second, sapphire the third, a chalcedony the fourth, an emerald The fifth, sardonyx the sixth, sardius the seventh, chrysolite the eighth, beryl the ninth, a topaz the tenth, a chrysoprasus the eleventh, a jacinth the twelfth, an amethyst." (Revelation 21:14-20)

The city has 12 full, complete foundations each one made of precious stone. Every color of the rainbow will be represented, so at a distance the city will no doubt appear to be resting upon a rainbow.

(F) STREETS

"The street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass." (Revelation 21:21)

(G) APPEARANCE

"The holy city, ... prepared as a bride adorned for her husband...Having the glory of God: and her light was like a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal...The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal." (Revelation 21:2, 11, 16)

The city, with all of its precious stones, gold, and shimmering beauty, will be lighted with the glory of God. In its breathtaking majesty and purity it is compared to "a bride adorned for her husband." (Rev 21:2)

4. What phenomenal feature of this majestic city assures every citizen eternal vigor and youth?

"In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations." (Revelation 22:2)

"Take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever." (Genesis 3:22)

Answer: The tree of life, which bears 12 kinds of fruit (and is in the middle of the city-- Revelation 2:7), brings unending life and youth to all who partake of it. Even its leaves will contain marvelous sustaining qualities. This tree will yield a new crop of fruit each month. (Rev 22:2, Isa 66:22, 23)

5. Is it true that this amazing city will descend to this earth?

"And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband." (Revelation 21:2)

"Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth." (Matthew 5:5)

"Behold the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth." (Proverbs 11:31)

Answer: Yes, the majestic holy city will come down to this earth to become the capital of the earth made new. All the righteous will have a home in this city.

6. What will happen to sin and sinners?

"All the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up." (Malachi 4:1)
"Fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them." (Revelation 20:9)
"The elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up." (2 Peter 3:10)
"Ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet." (Malachi 4:3) "Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness." (2

Peter 3:13)

Answer: God will destroy all sin and sinners with fire. This fire will melt the earth and turn everything into ashes. Then God will make a perfect new earth, and the holy city will be its capital. Here the righteous will live in joy, peace, and holiness throughout eternity. God promises that sin will not rise up again. See Nahum 1:9.

7. What refreshing, thrilling promises does God make to the people who enter His new kingdom?

Answer:

A. The Lord, in person, will live with them (Revelation 21:3).

B. They will never become bored. There will be pleasures forevermore (Psalms 16:11).

C. There will be no more death, pain, tears, sorrow, sickness, hospitals, operations, tragedy, disappointment, trouble, hunger, or thirst (Revelation 21:4 Isaiah 33:24 Revelation 22:3 Isaiah 65:23 Revelation 7:16).

D. They will not get tired (Isaiah 40:31).

E. Every saved person will be physically whole in every way. The deaf will hear, the blind will see, the dumb will sing, and the lame will be able to run (Isaiah 35:5, 6 Philippians 3:21).

F. Jealousy, fear, hatred, falsehood, envy, impurity, cynicism, filth, worry, and all evil will be forever shut out of God's kingdom (Revelation 21:8, 27 22:15). People will no longer be burdened with the worries and the cares that drive them to distraction. There will be no more nervous breakdowns. Time will become eternity, and the pressures and deadlines of earth will be gone forever.

8. How will the new earth differ from our earth today?

Answer:

- A. Vast seas as we know them today will be gone (Revelation 21:1). The oceans and seas cover three-fourths of the earth's surface today. This will not be the case in God's new kingdom. The whole world will be one huge garden of unsurpassed beauty, interspersed with lakes, rivers, and mountains (Revelation 22:1 Acts 3:20, 21).
- B. The deserts will become gardens (Isaiah 35:1, 2).
- C. The animals will all be tame. None will prey upon others, and a little child will lead them (Isaiah 11:6-9 65:25).
- D. There will be no more curse (Revelation 22:3).
- E. There will be no more violence of any kind (Isaiah 60:18). This precludes crime, storms, floods, earthquakes, tornadoes, injury, etc.
- F. Nothing defiling will be found in the new earth (Revelation 21:27). There will be no cigarette butts, tobacco juice, drunkards, taverns, alcoholic beverages, brothels, lewd pictures, or any other wickedness or impurity of any kind.

9. Will there be children in God's kingdom? If so, will they grow up?

"And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof." Zechariah 8:5. "And ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall." (Malachi 4:2)

Answer: Yes, there will be many boys and girls in the holy city (Isaiah 11:6-9), and these youngsters will grow up (Malachi 4:2). We have degenerated much in stature, intellect, and vitality since Adam, but all of this will be restored (Acts 3:20, 21).

10. When reunited with loved ones in heaven, will the saved know each other?

"Then shall I know even as also I am known." (1 Corinthians 13:12)

Answer: The Bible clearly teaches that righteous loved ones who have died will be raised to join the righteous living in God's kingdom (Isaiah 26:19; Jeremiah 31:15-17; 1 Corinthians 15:51-55; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18). And the Scriptures also teach that people in God's new kingdom will know each other, just as people recognize each other on the earth today.

11. Will people in heaven be real, with flesh and bones?

"Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have...And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them,

Have ye here any meat? And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he took it, and did eat before them." "And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and ... while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven." (Luke 24:36-39, 41-43, 50, 51)

 "This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven." (Acts 1:11)
 "The Lord Jesus Christ ... shall change our vile body that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body." (Philippians 3:20, 21)

Answer: After His resurrection, Jesus proved to His disciples that He was flesh and bones by having them feel Him and by eating food. This same Jesus of flesh and bones ascended to His Father and will come again to the earth. The righteous will be given bodies just like the body of Christ and will be real people with flesh and bones throughout eternity. The difference will be that the heavenly body will not be subject to death, decay, or deterioration. The teaching that the saved in heaven will be ghosts who float on mist clouds and do nothing but play harps has no foundation in the Scriptures. Jesus did not die on the cross to provide any such trivial and foolish future for those who accept His love and nobly follow His way of life. Most people have no interest in such an ethereal existence and, therefore, have little or no desire to enter God's heavenly kingdom--often preferring it only because they fear hell. If only all people everywhere could learn the truth about God's holy city and new earth, and His character, millions would begin to understand His love and would turn to Him with all their hearts. A person who misses out on God's kingdom has made the supreme blunder of a lifetime.

12. How will the righteous spend their time in the heavenly kingdom?

"And they shall build houses, and inhabit them and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit they shall not plant, and another eat: ... mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands." Isaiah 65:21, 22.

Answer: The righteous will build their own homes in the new earth. (Each will also have a city mansion built by Christ--John 14:1-3.) They will plant vineyards and eat the fruit from them. The Bible is plain. Real people do real things in heaven, and they will thoroughly enjoy it all.

13. In what other thrilling activities will the redeemed participate in?

Answer:

- A. Sing and play heavenly music (Isaiah 35:10 51:11 Psalms 87:7 Revelation 14:2, 3).
- B. Worship before God's throne every Sabbath (Isaiah 66:22, 23).
- C. Enjoy never-fading flowers and trees (Ezekiel 47:12 Isaiah 35:1, 2).
- D. Visit with loved ones, patriarchs, prophets, etc. (Matthew 8:11 Revelation 7:9-17).
- E. Study the animals of heaven (Isaiah 11:6-9 65:25).
- F. Travel and explore without ever becoming weary (Isaiah 40:31).
- G. Listen to God sing (Zephaniah 3:17).
- H. Realize fondest ambitions (Psalms 37:3, 4 Isaiah 65:24).
- I. Greatest joy of all the privilege of being like Jesus, traveling with Him, and seeing Him face to face (Revelation 14:4 22:4 21:3 1 John 3:2)

14. Can feeble human language really describe the glories of the heavenly home?

"Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him." (1 Corinthians 2:9)

Answer: Not even in its wildest dreams can the heart of man begin to comprehend the marvels of God's eternal kingdom. All that Adam lost will be restored (Acts 3:20, 21)

15. Is this kingdom being prepared for me personally?

"Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely." (Revelation 22:17)

"To an inheritance incorruptible ... reserved in heaven for you." (1 Peter 1:4)

"I go to prepare a place for you." (John 14:2)

Answer: It is prepared for you personally. The invitation from the Lord is to you personally. If rejected, friend, you will have no one to blame but yourself.

16. How can I be assured of a place in that great and glorious kingdom?

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in." (Revelation 3:20)

"Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." (Revelation 22:14)

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." (Matthew 7:21)

"As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God." (John 1:12)

"The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." (1 John 1:7)

Answer: The Bible makes it plain. It is simple. Give your life to Christ for cleansing from sin. When you do this, He also gives you power to do His will and keep His commandments. This means, of course, that you will begin to live as Christ lived and will overcome all sin. "He that overcometh shall inherit all things." (Revelation 21:7) In short, a person is prepared for heaven when he has heaven in his heart.

17. I have decided to accept Jesus' offer to live with Him forever in His heavenly kingdom.

Answer:

THOUGHT QUESTIONS

1. How can heaven be a happy place when the saved think of loved ones who are lost?

The Bible says that God will "wipe away all tears from their eyes." (Revelation 21:4) Surrounded by the beauty and joys of the new earth, God's redeemed people will forget the tragedies and heartaches of the past; "the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind." (Isaiah 65:17)

2. The Bible says, "Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God." 1 Corinthians 15:50. How, then, can the redeemed be flesh and bones?

Here the Bible uses the term "flesh" to describe the unconverted person. A similar thought is expressed in Romans 8:8, 9: "They that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you." John 3:6 says, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." The term "flesh" here again refers to the unconverted person, while the term "spirit" refers to the converted or "born again" person. So the Bible is simply saying in 1 Corinthians 15:50 that no one can enter God's kingdom unless conversion first takes place and the mind walks after the spirit rather than the flesh. Christ, in His resurrected body, declared that He was truly "flesh and bones." Luke 24:39. We shall have a body like His, according to Philippians 3:21.

3. Is the apostle Peter in charge of the gate of the holy city?

No! The Bible says in Revelation 21:12 that the new Jerusalem--the holy city of God--has 12 gates, and at the gates are 12 angels. No reference is made in the Bible to any of the apostles as guardians of the gates.

4. Is the holy city really big enough to hold all the saved people of all ages?

If the city were to be crowded and each saved person given only 100 square feet of ground space, there would be room for 39 billion people in the city, which is many times the present population of the world. Many statisticians believe that if all the people who have ever lived were saved, there would be plenty of room for them in the city. The Scriptures make it clear, however, that only a few will be saved (Matthew 7:14). So there will be more than enough room in the great city.

5. Sometimes I wonder if the reward is worth the sacrifice. It seems that Satan is about to overwhelm me at times. Does the Bible offer me any encouragement?

Yes. In fact, the apostle Paul must have been thinking of someone like you when he wrote, "The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us." (Romans 8:18) Just one glimpse of that eternal kingdom will cause the worst trials and persecutions of earth to pale into insignificance, and the redeemed will cry out: "Hallelujah, heaven is cheap enough!" We must look heavenly and the things of earth will grow strangely dim.

6. Will little babies who die be saved in God's kingdom?

The Bible does not expressly state that all babies will be saved. A mother can only give a child what she has, and this is why all are born into Adam's fallen sinful nature. A nature subject to death. (Rom 5:12) However, Adam after conversion could give his child a born again spirit. And though the flesh must be subject to the first death, the child who is born again, is truly born again of the spirit that "liveth and abideth forever." (1 Pet 1:23) Many mother's throughout the Bible had children that were born with the holy spirit from birth. (Gal 4:29, Luke 1:15, Matt 1:18, 1 Samuel 1, Judges 13) In these instances the mother was told not to consume wine or unclean foods as this would affect the birth of the child. In the same sense today, a mother may pass down her spiritual genes to her child. The Old Testament foretold that many women in the New Jerusalem would have their children restored unto them. "Refrain thy voice from weeping, ... they [the slain children] shall come again from the land of the enemy. ... Thy children shall come again to their own border." (Jeremiah 31:16, 17) This is an obvious reference to the resurrection.

7. Do I understand correctly that heaven, the home of the saved, will be right here on this earth?

That is correct. Although the holy city is now in God's dwelling place, He is going to move it to this earth. Sin and sinners will be destroyed with fire, and the earth will be made new and given to the righteous in all of its Edenic glory and beauty. The holy city will be the capital of the new earth, and God will move His throne here (Revelation 21:2, 3; 22:1, 3) and live with the righteous right here on this earth throughout eternity. And where the Lord abides, that is heaven. God's plan is to restore to man what Adam lost: the glories of a perfect life on a perfect planet. Satan and sin interrupted God's plan, but the plan will be carried out. We can all share in this new kingdom--and we must! It's too much to miss.

8. Why do so many teach and believe that the home of the saved is a misty place with ghostlike inhabitants who float on clouds and do nothing but play harps?

This teaching originated with the devil, the father of lies (John 8:44). He is anxious to distort God's loving plan and present heaven as an unreal, "spooky" place so people will lose interest or become skeptical of God's Word altogether. Satan well knows that when men and women fully understand the Bible truth regarding the home of the saved, his power over them is broken, because they will begin making plans to enter that kingdom. This is why he works so hard to becloud the issue and spread falsehood regarding that heavenly home.
